

VERNISSAGE

ClaudioFOTOGRAFICO

14.11.2024

From the exploration of Mother Nature to the search for the invisible.

The artist's attempt is to capture the rushing of water in a photographic shot, to give the imagination a chance to see otherwise invisible images.

A journey inside the water world when in the white that dominates its course, it unconsciously hides shapes, colours and suggestions that are dispersed in its descent towards the valley.

This research led the artist to the realisation of the project entitled "The Unconscious of Water", where the camera becomes the tool for capturing images created by the natural movement of water, real drawings that are contextualised in post-production through chromatic interventions, enhancing the forms without ever altering them.

Public opening for the Vernissage
